

Mr. García's AP Spanish Literature Class

Summer Assignment

I am proud of you for making it this far in the Spanish Program and for wanting to continue to expand your horizons. You are about to take on the most challenging task that you have experienced thus far, The Advanced Placement Spanish Literature Course and Exam. I am confident that through our combined efforts and dedication: you will learn; you will succeed; and you will pass the AP Exam.

In order to prepare you for the course and ensure your success, I require that you perform the following tasks:

- 1. Visit the following sites for AP Spanish Literature, print, read and study the required reading list and “Glossary of Literary Terms” for this course.
http://apcentral.collegeboard.com/apc/members/exam/exam_information/219542.html
http://apcentral.collegeboard.com/apc/public/courses/teachers_corner/3500.html
- 2. Check out from our Library “Reflexiones” or “Abriendo Puertas: Tomo 1 y 2” and read the required short stories and poems in the textbook. In addition, please read the required plays, novels, historical accounts, and short stories in the textbook. We will have a test on the first week of school based on this material. Please study and be ready to hit the ground running.
- 3. If for some reason, you are not able to perform these tasks, or this is too much work or too difficult for you, please contact your guidance counselor ASAP so that you may be placed in a more appropriate class.

Finally, I hope you have a great summer and I can't wait to see you again next school year.

Sincerely,

Mr. Javier García
