

The Mission of JROTC

To Help Young People Become Better Citizens

Why should I join JROTC?

JROTC is for everyone; from the most successful students to those that need additional mentorship, JROTC stresses success for a lifetime. The Army JROTC program is accredited by AdvancED, the parent organization of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Council on Accreditation and School Improvement (SACS CASI). Additionally, JROTC fully supports AP Capstone, Center for the Arts, Athletics and all CLHS clubs.

Skills Taught in JROTC:

Leadership and Management are skills that transcend every student, profession, career, job, and sport.

Attention to Detail and Accountability will enable students to excel in the classroom, on the field and in life.

Communication Skills for healthier personal and professional relationships.

Students gain experience through a lead and learn performance based curriculum. Students demonstrate the skills, apply the knowledge, and model or exhibit behaviors representing that of a model student and citizen. Assessment tasks serve as tools for verifying and documenting that students have mastered the competencies.
